NOTE 1: The figures for the City of Baroda include the Cantonment and are shown first. The administrative divisions are then shown alphabetically. The City is an independent administrative unit. The Cantonment known as the Camp, has an area of one square mile. Its population is shown separately in Tables IV and V following.

NOTE 2: The administrative division hitherto known as Kadi is now called Mehsana from its headquarters town.

NOTE 3: The area shown in column 2 differs from that given in Imperial Table I of 1921. The detailed reasons for the variation will be given in the Report. The main reasons for the increase of 37 square miles are: (i) the villages of the Thakore of Lal Mandwa with an area of 18 square miles were not hitherto shown in the State area total, although they are under the sovereignty of this State and have been censused all along; (ii) Patan and Songadh talukas in Mehsana and Navsari divisions respectively show an increase of 10 square miles due to more accurate measurements; and (iii) Bhadran and Padra talukas in Baroda division show an increase of 7 square miles due to alluvium.

NOTE 4: Population and area figures by talukas showing distribution by religion and literacy are given in State Tables I and II at the end of this volume.

BARODA CENSUS, 1931

TABLE IX—Infirmities

( In Three Parts )

NOTE 1: The infirmities recorded at the Census were Insanity, Deaf-Mutism, Blindness and Leprosy.

NOTE 2: This Table is divided into three parts: Part A shows the distribution of persons afflicted according to age-periods smoothed as in Table VII. Part B shows their distribution according to division. Part C shows these infirmities by selected castes, tribes and races. In this part, castes selected are the same as those for Imperial Tables VIII, XI and XIV with the exception of such as contain less than 10 infirm persons in all. The rest have been lumped together and shown as "Others" at the end.

NOTE 3: Some afflicted persons were returned as suffering from more than one infirmity. In the Table, they have been shown under each infirmity. This explains why the total afflicted in columns 2, 3 and 4 of Parts A and B, does not agree with the total of the figures for each separate infirmity, but is less by 101 as 91 persons suffer from double infirmities and 5 from triple. The following is a list of these combined entries :—

BARODA CENSUS, 1931

TABLE X—Occupation or Means of Livelihood

NOTE 1: The arrangement of this Table is based on the scheme of classification of occupations prescribed by the Census Commissioner for India.

NOTE 2: This Table gives the figures of Earners and Working Dependents only for each occupational group. It also shows for each occupational group, the number of persons who follow it as a subsidiary occupation to any other principal occupation. No attempt is made to distribute those who are totally dependent among the different occupations. The total of non-working dependents is shown on the top for the whole State in general and for each division and the City of Baroda separately.

NOTE 3: "Working Dependents" mean those old, middle aged or young persons of either sex of a family who working full or part time in the family occupation help to augment the family income. As persons who are wholly dependent are not distributed by occupation it is deemed necessary to distribute at least working dependents according to the occupations in which they assist. This Table has been compiled on this basis, but it is also sometimes held that they should be classified according to the nature of the assistance they render. Ordinarily, a working dependent can be readily classed under the occupation of the earning member of his family, whatever may be the view held as to how to classify him, — because, besides deriving support from it, the nature of the help he gives is part of the processes of the occupation itself. But in agriculture, there is a difference. Thus working dependents of a cultivating owner or tenant are shown, not under "agricultural labour", but under the respective occupation of the earner of the family whom they assist. They cannot obviously be classed with agricultural labour as they have a more abiding interest in the land than mere paid labour. Besides according to the view held by the Baroda Census, an agricultural labourer can have presumably no working dependent, as such assistance, in whatever form rendered, will receive wages, and therefore entitle the helper to be classed as an earner. But if the view is held that working dependents should be distributed according to the nature of the help that they give, a total of 212,495 (30,411 males; 182,084 females) working dependents under groups 5 and 6 will have to be taken to agricultural labour.

NOTE 4: Groups No. 169-170 are compiled together as there is no Act regarding registration of medical practitioners in Baroda.

TABLE XI—Occupation by Caste, Tribe or Race
(In Two Parts)

---

- NOTE 1: This Table is divided into two parts. Part A shows the variety of occupations followed by each of the selected castes. Part B shows the different castes, which follow the occupations in certain selected groups of the scheme of classification of occupations.
- NOTE 2: The arrangement and selection of castes in Part A of this table follow Tables VIII and XIV.
- NOTE 3: Figures for females are given below those for males as in Table VIII.
- NOTE 4: Columns 6, 8 and 9 in Table XI-A are intended to throw light on the extent to which traditional caste occupations are followed; while column 7 shows how far castes have retained their traditional functions as subsidiary with other occupations. The figures from column 10 to end are, therefore, exclusive of the totals shown in the three columns 6, 8 and 9. Asterisks have been placed against the figures in those columns, which are affected by this arrangement.
- NOTE 5: Column 4 shows the total of earners and working dependents. As the figures under columns 6 and 10 and onwards relate only to earners, their total will be less than that shown in column 4 by the number of working dependents.
- NOTE 6: Part B is in two sub-divisions: (i) showing earners by castes most numerous and important in the occupation groups selected; and (ii) giving similar details for working dependents of some groups.

BARODA CENSUS, 1931

TABLE XIII—Literacy by Religion and Age
( In Three Parts )

NOTE 1: This table like Table VII is divided into three parts. Part A shows the extent of literacy in the State as a whole among the total population and for each religion returned; Part B gives details for divisions for the total population of the division and for each main religion, and Part C gives similar details for the City of Baroda. Age groups in this Table, as in Table VII, have been smoothed according to the formula given in article 7 Chapter IV of the Imperial Census Procedure Code Part II. All persons below five years of age have been excluded from the whole table. Only such literate persons as are aged 5 years and over are considered literate for the purpose of this table.

NOTE 2: This Table shows literacy in any language. The number of persons who are not literate, but are able to read only are shown as a part of the "Illiterate" total. Persons, who are literate in English, are also shown separately, but these are also included in the total of literates shown in columns 5, 6 and 7.

NOTE 3: The Christian literates are distributed by race as under :—

BARODA CENSUS, 1931

TABLE XIV—Literacy by Selected Castes

NOTE 1: This Table gives the literacy statistics in respect of castes selected on account of their strength. Generally only such castes have been selected as formed at the Census 2 per mille of the population; a few others, however, like certain well known Brahman and Vania groups and other castes of local importance, are chosen although their strength is lower than the above scale.

NOTE 2: The selected castes have been classified into "Advanced," "Intermediate" and "Illiterate" according to a percentage scale of male literacy. Only such castes in which the male literates form at least 50 per cent of their sex, excluding those below seven years of age, have been included in the list of "Advanced"; the "Intermediate" group consists of castes in which the male-literacy ranges from 10 to below 50 per cent; while the "Illiterate" group forms the remainder of the selected castes.

NOTE 3: The castes selected are those that belong to Hindu Brahmanic, Jain, Tribal and Muslim religions. Indian Christians are shown as a whole. Zoroastrians, Sikhs, Arya-samajists, Brahmos and other religious groups are omitted because literacy statistics regarding these are already contained in Imperial Table XIII.

NOTE 4: The Indian Christian literate total shown in this Table differs from that given on the title page of Table XIII as it contains only such literates as are aged 7 years and over.

BARODA CENSUS, 1931

TABLE XVIII—Variation in Population of Selected Tribes during last fifty years

NOTE 1: In this Table figures of population of Forest and Hill tribes, which are mostly found in the Navsari Division, and the eastern portion of the Baroda Division, are given for the last six censuses. Details regarding their distribution will be found in Imperial Table XVII-A.

NOTE 2: The eighteen tribes selected for this Table have been definitely recognised since the Census of 1921 as belonging to the Forest and Hill tribes. The list has been approved by the Government of the State.

NOTE 3: The distribution of these tribes under the different religions shows great fluctuations. An attempt will be made in the Report to explain them.

NOTE 4: An attempt was made in this Census to find out the tribe and caste of Indian Christians, but as comparative figures for previous censuses are not available, the results are given herein so far as they relate to the selected tribes.

 STATE TABLE I—Area and Population of Mahals and Peta Mahals

NOTE: Column 2 gives the latest figures for area. The effect of inter-taluka transfers, as from Savli to Baroda, from Sinor to Tilakwada and from Vaghodia to Dabhoi, the gain in area through river-action in Padra and Bhadrin, the correction of mistakes in measurement and area totals in Patan and Songadh, and the inclusion of the villages belonging to the Thakore of Lal Mandwa have all been calculated in these figures. The inter-taluka transfers have not resulted however in changes in the area of divisions, but the requisite adjustments in the populations, percentages of variation and densities in talukas affected have been carried out. The constitution of talukas and administrative divisions has however remained unchanged.
